The Splash exhibition is a great opportunity to discover new artists and see the latest trends in contemporary art. The exhibition is also a great place to purchase artwork for your home or office.

This year's Splash exhibition will feature the work of over 100 artists, including:

- Painters: John Smith, Jane Doe, Mary Johnson
- Sculptors: Michael Jones, Susan Brown, David Williams
- Photographers: Thomas Green, Sarah White, Robert Black
- Digital artists: James Brown, Jessica Jones, Chris Williams

The Splash exhibition will be held at the City Art Center from March 1st to April 15th. The exhibition is free and open to the public.

Events and activities

In addition to the exhibition, Splash will also host a number of events and activities, including:

- Artist talks: Hear from the artists themselves about their work and inspiration.
- Workshops: Learn new art techniques from experienced artists.
- Tours: Take a guided tour of the exhibition with a curator.
- Family day: Bring the whole family for a day of art-filled fun.

Splash is a great opportunity to discover new artists, see the latest trends in contemporary art, and purchase artwork for your home or office. Don't miss out on this exciting exhibition!
