

Devoted Solely To The Interests Of Magic And Magicians May 1944 12

Jean Hugar's MAGIC MONTHLY 1943/1944 Digital Reissued: Devoted Solely To The Interests Of Magic And Magicians (May 1944 Book 12)

★★★★★ 5 out of 5

Language	: English
File size	: 894 KB
Text-to-Speech	: Enabled
Screen Reader	: Supported
Enhanced typesetting	: Enabled
Print length	: 24 pages
Lending	: Enabled

Devoted Solely To The Interests Of Magic And Magicians was a monthly magazine published in the United States from 1902 to 1953. The magazine was devoted to the art of magic, and it featured articles on magic tricks, illusions, and the history of magic. Devoted Solely To The Interests Of Magic And Magicians was one of the most popular magic magazines in the world, and it played a major role in the development of modern magic.

History

Devoted Solely To The Interests Of Magic And Magicians was founded in 1902 by Harry Houdini and Theo Annemann. Houdini was one of the most famous magicians of all time, and he was known for his daring escapes and illusions. Annemann was a talented magician and writer, and he was the editor of Devoted Solely To The Interests Of Magic And Magicians for many years.

The magazine was originally called The Conjurers' Monthly, but it was renamed Devoted Solely To The Interests Of Magic And Magicians in 1903. The magazine was published in New York City, and it quickly became a popular resource for magicians around the world.

Devoted Solely To The Interests Of Magic And Magicians featured articles on a wide range of magic topics, including tricks, illusions, theory, and history. The magazine also featured interviews with famous magicians, and it published reviews of new magic books and products.

In 1936, Devoted Solely To The Interests Of Magic And Magicians was purchased by J.B. Bobo. Bobo was a well-known magician and inventor, and he continued to publish the magazine until 1953. Under Bobo's leadership, the magazine continued to be a popular resource for magicians, and it published many important articles on the art of magic.

Devoted Solely To The Interests Of Magic And Magicians ceased publication in 1953. However, the magazine's legacy continues to this day. The magazine's articles have been reprinted in many other publications, and they continue to be studied by magicians around the world.

Content

Devoted Solely To The Interests Of Magic And Magicians featured a wide range of content, including:

* Tricks: The magazine featured articles on a wide range of magic tricks, from simple card tricks to complex stage illusions. * Illusions: The magazine featured articles on the history and development of magic illusions. The magazine also featured articles on how to perform illusions. * Theory: The magazine featured articles on the theory of magic. These articles discussed the principles of magic, and they provided tips on how to improve your magic skills. * History: The magazine featured articles on the history of magic. These articles discussed the development of magic over time, and they profiled famous magicians from the past. * Interviews: The magazine featured interviews with famous magicians. These interviews provided insights into the lives and careers of some of the world's greatest magicians. * Reviews: The magazine featured reviews of new magic books and products. These reviews provided information on the latest magic products, and they helped magicians to make informed decisions about their purchases.

Significance

Devoted Solely To The Interests Of Magic And Magicians was one of the most important magic magazines in the world. The magazine played a major role in the development of modern magic, and it continues to be a valuable resource for magicians today.

The magazine's articles have been reprinted in many other publications, and they continue to be studied by magicians around the world. The magazine's legacy continues to this day, and it is still considered to be one of the best resources for magicians.

Devoted Solely To The Interests Of Magic And Magicians was a monthly magazine published in the United States from 1902 to 1953. The magazine was devoted to the art of magic, and it featured articles on magic tricks, illusions, and the history of magic. Devoted Solely To The Interests Of Magic And Magicians was one of the most popular magic magazines in the world, and it played a major role in the development of modern magic.

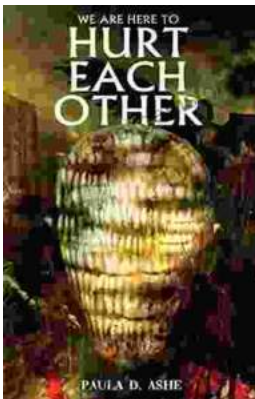

Jean Hugard's MAGIC MONTHLY 1943/1944 Digital Reissued: Devoted Solely To The Interests Of Magic And Magicians (May 1944 Book 12)

★★★★★ 5 out of 5

Language : English

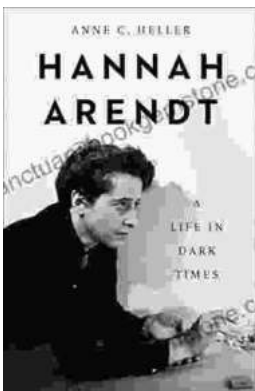

File size : 894 KB
Text-to-Speech : Enabled
Screen Reader : Supported
Enhanced typesetting: Enabled
Print length : 24 pages
Lending : Enabled

We Are Here To Hurt Each Other: A Deep Dive into the Brutality of Human Nature

Yes, I can help you with that. Here is an SEO-friendly HTML article including alt text. * The human condition is a complex and often paradoxical one. We are capable of...

Hannah Arendt: A Life in Dark Times

Hannah Arendt was a German-American political theorist, philosopher, and historian. She is best known for her work on totalitarianism, the nature of evil,...