Itinerary Suggestions

There are many different ways to spend a long weekend in Lima, depending on your interests. Here are a few suggested itineraries:

1. Day 1: Arrive in Lima and check into your hotel. Visit the Plaza de Armas, the heart of Lima's historic center. Have dinner at one of the many restaurants in the area.

2. Day 2: Visit the Larco Museum, which houses a large collection of pre-Columbian art. Take a walk through the bohemian Barranco district. Have dinner at one of the many seafood restaurants in the area.
3. Day 3: Visit the Pachacamac ruins, an ancient Inca city. Go shopping for souvenirs at the Mercado Central. Have dinner at one of the many traditional Peruvian restaurants in the area.
4. Day 4: Visit the Museum of Contemporary Art. Take a walk through the Miraflores district. Have dinner at one of the many international restaurants in the area.
5. Day 5: Depart from Lima.

Restaurant Recommendations

Lima is home to a wide variety of restaurants, serving everything from traditional Peruvian cuisine to international fare. Here are a few of our top recommendations:

- Astrid y Gaston: One of the best restaurants in the world, Astrid y Gaston serves innovative Peruvian cuisine in a beautiful setting.
- Central: Another world-renowned restaurant, Central serves modern Peruvian cuisine with a focus on local ingredients.
- La Rosa Nautica: A seafood restaurant located on a pier overlooking the Pacific Ocean, La Rosa Nautica is a great place to enjoy a romantic dinner.
- Pachamanca: A traditional Peruvian restaurant that serves pachamanca, a dish of meat and vegetables cooked in a pit in the ground.

- El Bodegon: A popular cevicheria that serves fresh ceviche and other Peruvian dishes.

Tips for Getting Around

Lima is a large city, but it is relatively easy to get around. Here are a few tips:

- Use public transportation. Lima has a good public transportation system, including buses, trains, and the Metropolitano, a bus rapid transit system.
- Take taxis. Taxis are relatively inexpensive in Lima. Be sure to agree on a price before getting in the taxi.
- Rent a car. Renting a car is a great option if you want to explore Lima and the surrounding area at your own pace.

Lima is a fascinating and vibrant city with plenty to offer visitors. Whether you're interested in history, culture, food, or nightlife, you'll find something to love in Lima. This guide has provided you with everything you need to plan the perfect long weekend in Lima, so what are you waiting for? Start planning your trip today!
