

Uncle John's Bathroom Reader Plunges Into Canada, Eh!

Uncle John's Bathroom Reader is proud to present a special edition devoted to our friends to the north, Canada. From fascinating facts about Canadian history and culture to hilarious anecdotes and trivia, this book has something for everyone.

Canada: A Brief History

Canada is a vast and diverse country with a rich and storied history. The first inhabitants of Canada were the Aboriginal peoples, who arrived in the region thousands of years ago. Europeans first arrived in Canada in the 15th century, and the country was eventually colonized by France and England. Canada became a self-governing dominion in 1867, and it gained full independence in 1982.
